Square on Dussel Drive. "We wanted to be able to offer more to our customers in the way of convenience," said David Swesey, owner of David

A local flower shop recently moved from Wayne Street in uptown Maumee to Suffolk

Swesey Florist.

The new location has more parking, among other advantages.

Swesey completed the move on Monday, January 9, after closing the Wayne Street location on Saturday, January 7.

He plans to offer customers more "cash and carry options," such as pre-made bouquets, in the future.

David Swesey Florist will offer many specials for Valentine's Day, among them, red roses priced at $25.00 per dozen.

"Those will be first-come, first-serve," Swesey warned.

A ribbon-cutting ceremony will be held on Monday, February 13 at 4:00 p.m. to celebrate the new opening.

Maumee Mayor Tim Wagener and the Maumee Chamber of Commerce staff will be in attendance, as well as other community members.

Refreshments will be served prior to and following the ceremony, which is open to the public.

David Swesey Florist is open from 7:00 a.m. until 7:00 p.m. on weekdays, 10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. on Saturday and noon to 5:00 p.m. on Sunday.

It is located in Suffolk Square at 433 W. Dussel Dr. Call (419) 891-0404 for more information.

Among the advantages of the new David Swesey Florist location, in Suffolk Square on W. Dussel Dr., are the additional parking spaces now available for customers.

Owner David Swesey is getting settled into his new location in Suffolk Square on Dussel Dr. The transition was made to the new location from the previous uptown Maumee store front in mid-January.

David Swesey Florist offers a wide array of floral arrangements, as well as other decorative items and gifts. A special Valentine's Day offer of red roses for $25.00 per dozen will be offered on a first-come, first-serve basis. MIRROR PHOTO BY LAUREN C. OSTBERG
